

Wednesday, January 31, 2007

Alpine Access in hiring mode

Alpine Access said Wednesday it will be hiring 500 people.

The privately held Golden company provides call centers operated by people working from their homes.

Alpine Access said it is looking to hire 300 people in and around Atlanta and another 200 in and around Indianapolis.

The company's customers include Office Depot, J.Crew, 1-800-Flowers and the Internal Revenue Service.